

Where Did You Sleep Last Night

6. 3-string chords - advanced

Traditional/B Parsons (arranged)

Chord progression for the first line: E, E7, A7, G(sus4), B7(add9), B7(add9), E. The notation is in treble clef, key of E major (three sharps), and 3/4 time. It shows a sequence of seven chords, each represented by a vertical line with a stem and a chord symbol above it. The first measure contains a whole rest.

Chord progression for the second line: E, E7, A7, G(sus4), B7(add9), B7(add9), E. The notation is in treble clef, key of E major (three sharps), and 3/4 time. It shows a sequence of seven chords, each represented by a vertical line with a stem and a chord symbol above it. The first measure is labeled with the number 10.